There are 10 miles of rock streets and about 11/2 miles of oiled par ets running through property. Beautiful "Miami Belvederes" costing approximately $130,000 have been erected and sold t home owners. Additional Belvederes, costing $20,000 are now in the course of construction; 1,500 plants and trees have been expended on the Ball Park feature, and $1,000 per year is being paid to the Boston Braves to insure their making this their winter training quarters for the next four years. A modern, concrete school building (the Riverside School) has been erected on Lawrence Drive, within easy reach of all residents.

The developments and the natural trend of the city's growth westward absolutely assure an hundredfold advance within the next two years on every foot of this choicest section, over present prices (within reach of all).

Never was there a more opportune time to buy in Riverside Heights than "now." The immense developments have all been made with the idea of increasing the values and selling price of the vacant lots. EUGENIC QUESTION WILL BE SPRUNG ON STATE LEGISLATURE

Tampa Times: Florida and its legislature are going to face one of the big eugenics questions, according to Rev. S. J. Winchester, of Savannah, who is in the state in behalf of a proposed bill requiring all male applicants for marriage licenses to produce a health certificate. Rev. Winchester, vice-president and general field secretary of the American Social Purity association, has drawn a bill to be introduced at Tallahassee in April by Senator McWilliams, of St. Augustine. A number of representatives and senators have already given him their endorsement, he says, among them being State Senator-elect Doyle Carlton of Tampa.

Rev. Winchester announced today that he would speak at the Tampa Bay casino, to men only, Sunday afternoon, Feb. 25 at 3 o'clock. Other dates he has already arranged on his campaign about the state in behalf of the bill include St. Petersburg, March 4, at the First Avenue Methodist church there. LONG KEY FISHING WITH RESULTS OF CATCHES BY TON

(Special to The Herald.) Long, Key, Feb. 16.-Long Key Fishing Camp has not been affected by the cold wave which recently passed throughout Florida. In fact even, larger catches of all kinds of fish have been brought in.

Colonel E. G. Wheeler, one of the Camp's best sportsmen, has been successful in landing the largest amberjack catch of the season thus far and yesterday brought in the largest fish of the day's catch. However, it was a successful day for all fishermen, as, at sundown, the various boats had brought in over a ton and a half of fish, to the dock. The Miami Fish company's boats are "on hand" to take care of the fish brought in as most of them are edible, and all, marketable

Among the late arrivals at the Camp are Mr. Howard Heinz, Pittsurg, Alexander Spear, Wm. J. Reid, R. S. Lake, C. Stetson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarkhohn and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. DIXIE HIGHWAY TRACT

To those residing permanently in Miami and to tourists here for the season

J. A. Gates & Son, have a message.

We have formulated a plan whereby we can greatly reduce the price of real estate to purchasers, cause the business of real estate to be more highly respected, and to be more enjoyable and satisfactory to those engaged in the

We purpose to sell lots in a tract by employing hired salesmen just as a merchant sells goods in his store by clerks in his employ. Parties visiting our Dixie Highway Tract, now being offered, will be shown over the tract by our salesmen. A tag bearing the lot and block number and price of lot is attached to a stake placed in front of each lot, to be detached by purchaser and presented at office of tract owner, where papers in settlement will be

We can, we believe, by this method save purchaser 25 per cent or more and complete the transaction most expediciously and satisfactorily.

We especially call attention to location of our Dixie Highway Tract. It adjoins the Charles Deering place on the north and extends from Dixie Highway to Bay View Ave., overlooking the Bay. All inside lots are held at a uniform price of $195 each, corners $300. If in this connection you note the fact that lots in Flander's tract which adjoins the Charles Deering place on the south are held at prices ranging from about $3,000 to $5,000, and are on lower land; you will readily see that lots in Dixie Highway will certainly appreciate rapidly in value with the growth of Miami and that you will make no mistake in buying now. Is it unreasonable to expect an advance of one hundred per cent in values within one year. May we not urge those of our home people thinking to secure a lot while cheap in price and most attractively located to select now. May we not urge tourists seeking a place for building a winter home to visit us; and may we not especially urge builders who want to get a bunch of lots on which to build houses to sell or rent to select now while the selecting is good—the bunches are unbroken. Dixie Highway Tract has many advantages, such as electric lights, telephones, jitney busses about half hearly, ice, meat, groceries delivered daily, daily mail delivery, high school, churches, literary clubs, fraternities, and other advantages of a happy and cultured community.

ADVERTISE IN THE HERALD—IT PAYS

Put Your Dollars in Producing Necessities They Will Earn More Than in Making Luxuries

Some bright genius may be able to invent a safety razor that will shave in a shorter time and with greater ease than those now on the market, and the safety razor situation may change, but we believe that your great-grandchildren will enjoy a porterhouse steak and a rasher of bacon just as much as you do now. Cattle and hogs and corn are ESSENTIALS. They are the backbone of agricultural wealth.

It's a world-old fact that wherever corn is grown, there is wealth. Florida is a corn-producing state. The record of the Boys' Corn Clubs shows profits per acre ranging from $45.28 to $84.05. A thousand-acre Florida corn field this year made its owner over $85,000 net.

Florida is taking advantage of its opportunities in soil, climate, labor conditions. It is learning rapidly that it does not do to simply tickle that soil, but that modern methods with experts in charge will produce huge crops. The tourists see the yellow wagons, the huge hotels and the palmettos along the railroad tracks, but this is not all of Florida -it rapidly is becoming a great cattle and hog state.

The Agricultural Securities Company, with a corps of experts at its command, can make YOUR dollars work safely and profitably in this state. While you are in Florida, send for our booklet; or, we shall be glad to show you the farms on which our securities are based-located not far from Jacksonville.
